Andrew:

Thanks for welcoming me to your school.

I feel as if I gave birth to a child—a most ‘difficult child’ to say the least! A child born at a time when our nation was wrestling with many new ideas. The idea that: All people should be treated equally regardless of race, color creed. But, unfortunately that was the case in 1968. I wanted to create a school that would become a shining example to all schools everywhere. A school that the rest of America could point to and say: “Hug High is that dream come true.”

In my humble opinion, you are perfect for Hug High School. You are the one who can carry on that dream.

You are a caring person. You have heart and vision. I know Hug High is in good hands!

Thanks for taking such good care of Hug High School and of my ‘dream!’

Happy Holidays to you and your family. If I can ever be of any help, please don’t hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

Buddy Garfinkle

(Mr. “G”)
